

NEARING THE CLIMAX.

Hardest Work of the Campaign Has Just Begun.

FINAL RALLIES OF ALL THE PARTIES.

Orators Speaking to Many Audiences During the Day—Bryan and Roosevelt the Star Speakers of Main Contending Forces.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—William Jennings Bryan arrived here at 4 p. m. from Hammond, Ind., escorted by several hundred members of the Cook County Democratic club and the Cook County Marching club and half an hour later addressed a business men's meeting on the lake front. In the evening, from 7 to 11 he made eight speeches on the northwest side of the city. Friday he will make nine speeches and five Saturday, leaving here late Saturday night for Lincoln, Neb.

Mr. Bryan's car, The Rambler, was attached to the newspaper train which left Cincinnati at 3:30 a. m. and the first stop for speaking was made at Jamestown, Ind., at 8 o'clock. Mr. Bryan spoke 10 minutes to a good crowd at the station dealing with the general issues of the campaign.

Mr. Bryan was received at Crawfordsville by another big crowd. He there charged the Republican party with a departure from the principles of the fathers, quoted Lincoln on the Declaration of Independence and paid a tribute to that instrument. He also discussed trusts and imperialism.

A stop of only a few minutes was made at the small town of Darlington, and Mr. Bryan suggested questions to be propounded to Republicans. Among those questions were inquiries as to whether the people want the trusts and whether they can depend upon the Republican party to destroy them. He also wanted to ask why they need 75,000 more soldiers now than we did four years ago, also what we were going to do with the Filipinos when we get them. In conclusion, he told his hearers that they should make their votes represent what they want in the form of government and laws.

At Frankfort, Mr. Bryan devoted a portion of his speech to the advocacy of the candidacy of Captain Allen for congress. Mr. Allen is in command of a company of American soldiers in the Philippines and Mr. Bryan made this fact the basis of his remarks. He said in part: "In this district you have as candidate for congress Captain Allen of your own town. I suppose the Republicans call him a copperhead and say he is against the administration. He is doing his duty as a soldier and is obeying the commands of the president. We ought not to have a president who would command an army to go 7,000 miles away from home to destroy the right of people to govern themselves. If we win our fight the world will be notified that we intend to recognize the right of other people as we defend our own, and Captain Allen will have a chance to come home and bring back those boys whom the Republican party is willing to exchange for trade in the Philippines islands."

Mr. Bryan left the train at Delphi and spoke in the court house yard. His audience was large and was composed principally of farmers. The speech was addressed to them and was devoted principally to the trusts and to the discussion of the size of the standing army.

Reasserting in his speech at Monticello that the Republicans had abandoned their issue of prosperity and failed in their plan of campaign. Mr. Bryan said they were now resorting to the same process of intimidation to which, he said, they had resorted in 1896. "If an employer says that the laboring man will lose his job if he votes for me," he continued, "the laboring man can tell his employer that if the times are half as good as Republicans say they are a man ought to be able to get another job in a very short time."

At Cincinnati Wednesday night Mr. Bryan made his first and only speech in the campaign in that city. He arrived on a special train and went direct to Music hall, where he talked for an hour. Hon. Judson Harmon, formerly attorney general under President Cleveland, presided at the meeting, and there were many other leading Democrats present. The hall was jammed with people. Mr. Bryan discussed all the leading issues. Referring to the full dinner pail, Mr. Bryan said: "They put a piece of cheese in the imperial trap, and expect the laboring man to run in and get caught in trying to get the cheese."

He asserted that the Republicans had lost the laboring man's vote already, and said that if one will go into the factories he will find that the people employed there know that for what they have that is good they have to thank the labor organizations rather than the Republican administration. The audience cheered to the echo when Mr. Bryan promised to exert every power of the executive to destroy all monopoly in case of his election.

ROOSEVELT'S BOUNDS.

Continues His Hustling Tour Through York State.

Buffalo, Nov. 1.—The Roosevelt special left Buffalo Thursday morning, bound for Jamestown, where it remains over night. It was scheduled to stop at many places along the route. The governor felt very well, his voice apparently was in good condition. For the first time since the trip began the governor attended a dinner after he was through with the meetings. Former Senator John Laughlin of this city gave a dinner to the orators and newspaper men of the train. He made a few remarks about the pleasant features of the trip and the great satisfaction that had been rendered them by those who accompanied him.

The first stop of the Roosevelt train was made at Batavia, at which place the train was a little behind time. The governor said there are many great issues at stake in this campaign. It is of vital importance to the welfare of the country that we should have a sound and stable currency. It is also of the utmost importance that the economic policies under which we have been so prosperous should be maintained. It is of vital importance that our honor should be kept unstained whether by partial repudiation at home or by the ignominious abandonment of our duty to the flag in the faces of the nations of mankind. But there are issues which surpass even these, because they concern the durability of the republic itself. Beyond all other issues are the issues of orderly liberty under the law and of civic honesty. Governor Roosevelt then severely denounced Croker for his utterance about watching the count Tuesday night as an encouragement of riot and mob violence to upset by force and fraud the verdict rendered at the polls. He declared that though he should regret the election of Bryan, yet "if Mr. Bryan has a plurality of but one vote in New York its count will be protected by every force at the command of the executive and the same measure of justice that we mete to others shall see is meted out to us in return."

The next stop of the Roosevelt special was at Attica, where the governor addressed a large crowd. He appealed to his hearers to support the Republican candidate, irrespective of party affiliations.

Jones Favors Croker's Plan.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, speaking of Richard Croker's recent suggestion that "Democratic voters congregate about the polling places on the evening of election day, count noses and then, if the election returns for Bryan don't tally with their count, go into the polling places and throw those fellows in charge of the returns into the street," said: "I don't see anything wrong with that suggestion. In my opinion the best way is for Democrats to be at the polls when they are opened and to remain there in good strong relays until the count is completed. It should be the duty of these Democrats to watch the judges and the count to see to it that no fraud is committed, and if any fraud is attempted to stop it then and there."

Bryan to Anti-Imperialists.

Boston, Nov. 1.—The reply from Mr. Bryan in acknowledging the address adopted by the National Liberty congress of anti-imperialists at Indianapolis, which was engrossed and sent to him, has just been received at the office of the New England Anti-Imperialist league here. Mr. Bryan says: "Every indication at present points to such an emphatic protest against the Republican party as to not only insure a return to the fundamental principles of government, but such a protest as will warn all parties in the future not to disregard the blood-bought principles which have given to this nation its glory and which must in future make it an example for the uplifting of mankind."

Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—The board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad company declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent and an extra dividend of one per cent on the capital stock of the company, payable on and after Nov. 30, 1900 to the stockholders as registered on the company's books at the close of business Wednesday

CONFESSED HIS GUILT.

Jones Admits That He and Patrick Forged the Checks.

HACKED HIS THROAT WITH A KNIFE.

Found Lying In a Pool of Blood In His Cell And Near the Brick of Death—Patrick Declares the Confession a Bath of Lies.

New York, Nov. 1.—Charles F. Jones, secretary and valet to the late millionaire William Marsh Rice, made a desperate effort early Thursday morning to commit suicide in his cell in the Tombs. He hacked the right side of his throat with a small pen-knife, making a deep wound and slightly opening the jugular. He was discovered by one of the keepers about 4 o'clock. He had been bleeding then for half an hour or more and was extremely weak and would probably have died had he gone 15 minutes longer without medical care. The ambulance surgeon had to administer stimulents repeatedly before he dared remove Jones to the hospital.

At the hospital Jones was placed in the prison ward and a policeman and two keepers were assigned to guard him. Along towards 6 o'clock he had regained his strength somewhat but nobody was allowed to see him. Warden Hagan of the Tombs declined to give out any of the details of the attempt to suicide. Jones was committed to the Tombs with Albert T. Patrick Sept. 22 on the charge of forging Mr. Rice's name to several checks.

Night Keeper Curran said Jones got the knife with which he cut his throat from Albert T. Patrick. Patrick denies, however, he said he knew nothing about the attempted suicide.

Mr. House, attorney for Jones, was very free in his denunciation of the course of the assistant district attorney in subjecting Jones to a "sweat-box" examination in the presence of Colonel Baker, an interested party to the prosecution, and while Jones' own counsel was absent.

There having become circulated so many conflicting statements as to whether Jones had made a confession, Assistant District Attorney Osborne was finally prevailed upon to make a statement.

"Tuesday afternoon," he said, "I received a message that Charles F. Jones in the city prison desired to see me. I went to see Jones and he was brought down to the warden's office and I asked him if he wanted to see me. He said he did. I told him that the law did not require him to make a statement, and explained that anything he might state might be used against him and I was not his lawyer. I told him that he had a lawyer and that he had better consult with him if he thought necessary. He said he voluntarily desired to make a statement. I thereupon sent for Captain McClusky, James Byrne of Hoinblower, Byrne, Miller & Potter, Mr. Miller, of the same firm, and in their presence Charles F. Jones made his statement to me. Without going into full details, he stated in substance that what Mr. Weber had testified was true. He said that for some days prior to Rice's death Patrick had given Mr. Rice tablets of a grayish color; that Mr. Rice took those tablets from Mr. Patrick and that Patrick told him to take them as he had taken some himself; that about this time Patrick and Rice had become very intimate; that Mr. Rice sent Jones to Patrick's house Saturday to demand certain papers that Patrick had in his possession."

Mr. Osborne says Jones described Rice's death as follows: "Mr. Rice was very sick. Patrick said to me: 'Go get a doctor.' I went for one and he came back with me and pronounced Rice dead. Patrick said 'How long has he been dead?' The doctor answered about 20 minutes. This was about 9 o'clock. Patrick asked the doctor what he was going to do. The doctor said get an undertaker. The doctor recommended an undertaker named Senior. I went there but could not get Senior and Patrick said 'Never mind, I'll get another.' When I got back I found an undertaker named Plowright there. 'Now, Jones, we've got to get all of the old man's papers. You know we must get all of them.' We took all the papers we could find and Patrick bundled them all up and took them away with him. Monday morning Patrick came to Mr. Rice's house. He had a checkbook in his hand. He said 'This is Mr. Rice's checkbook.' Then he showed me two checks signed by Rice. He said 'I want you to fill out the amounts of these checks,' and at his request I filled out one for $5,000 and another for $65,000."

The most of Mr. Osborne's information from Jones was in the form of a written letter on prison paper, both sides of which were written on. Jones does not state what became of the bottle, supposed to have contained poison, but a detective attached to the district attorney's office went to Rice's apartments and there procured several bottles. They were taken to the office at police headquarters.

A letter was sent to Patrick in the Tombs embodying the substantial facts contained in Jones' statement. Patrick sent back word that he did not believe Jones had made any such statement and that if he had, he had simply told a mass of lies. Patrick stated he was innocent and that he hoped to be so proven in time.

IN CANTON.

President McKinley Will Receive Election Returns.

Canton, O., Nov. 1.—President McKinley has decided to remain in Canton to receive the election news Tuesday night and return to Washington Wednesday. Heretofore since he has been president it has been his custom to leave for Washington either immediately after voting or else during the evening of election day. Telegraph wires are being run into the house for furnishing the president prompt and complete election returns. There will also be long distance telephone service at the house, furnishing direct communication between the president's Canton home, the home of Governor Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, N. Y., the White House at Washington, the Republican headquarters at Chicago and at New York. To provide all these facilities workmen have already begun stringing wires.

Sued a Trust.

Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—Two suits against the bicycle trust were filed in the federal court, the plaintiffs asking for a total of $50,000 damages. The suits were brought by G. H. Thayer, Jr., and George Marble of Plymouth. These two were in a company making rims at Plymouth, which sold out to the trust, which bought stock in the concern. The plaintiffs aver that a part of the trade was that they were to be reckoned as general managers of the Plymouth plant and each was to receive a salary of $5,000 a year. The claim is made that last March both of the general managers were discharged.

Accused of Embezzlement.

New York, Nov. 1.—Frederick D. Yuengling, son of the well known brewer, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Alexander on the complaint made by the British consul general, charging him with embezzlement in Rossland, B. C., and asking for his extradition. Young Yuengling was arrested about three weeks ago on the complaint of the Lion Brewing company at Rossland, charging him with having embezzled from the company $387. He was the general manager of the company in Rossland.

Rockhill as Counselor.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Secretary Hay has cabled Commissioner Rockhill an appointment as counselor of the American legation at Peking. He has been directed to proceed at once from Shanghai to Peking to assist Minister Conger in that capacity in the negotiations for a final settlement. The purpose to appoint Mr. Rockhill and General Wilson fellow commissioners with Minister Conger to conduct the negotiations was abandoned only because it appeared no power was to appoint commissioners.

Seized the Gold.

Hamburg, Nov. 1.—The provincial court has laid an embargo upon bar gold to the value of 2,500,000 marks which arrived at Cuxhaven on the imperial mail steamer Bundesrath from Delagoa bay. This step was taken, it is alleged, for the sole purpose of reimbursing insurance companies here for gold withheld by the Transvaal government during the war. A rumor that the gold was shipped by Mr. Kruger is denied.

Price of Coal Advanced.

New York, Nov. 1.—It is announced that prices of anthracite coal have been advanced 50 cents a ton over the nominal price of the July circular by the anthracite mining and carrying companies. The change covers the whole country.

General Booth Coming.

New York, Nov. 1.—General William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation army is coming here next September to take practically the control of the Salvation army in the United States for at least six months.

Death of Prominent Lawyer.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 1.—Benjamin F. Fowler, 40, a prominent attorney is dead here, after an operation for appendicitis. In 1890, he was appointed United States attorney for Wyoming by President Harrison.

LET HIM DOWN EASY.

Countess Doesn't Want to Hurt Her Dear Husband's Feelings.

BONI ALL CUT UP OVER HIS FLIGHT.

Furious Because Brother of the Countess Was Appointed Trustee. Brother George Not Expected To Be Very Liberal.

New York, Nov. 1.—The news of George Gould's appointment by a French court as administrator of his sister, the Countess de Castellane's property, was conveyed by a reporter to the Gould brothers in their Broadway office. George Gould sent out word that he could say nothing, though he might make a statement later. It is said George Gould will soon start for Paris to take charge of the Castellane affairs.

The Countess de Castellane, whose property has just been placed under the direction of her brother George J. Gould by a French court was questioned relative to the matter, says a Paris dispatch, at her mansion in the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, but she would not go into details of the case. She said: "Please make light of the matter. It will only revive stories which will hurt my dear husband's feelings. He already suffers keenly the exposure of his present situation."

Count Boni was away from Paris three days but returned Thursday. He conversed an hour with his father over the long distance telephone. He is indignant that the court should have appointed a foreigner to watch over the countess' fortune. He wanted his father appointed, if a trustee was to be named. "My son," said the marquis, "thought I could serve him equally well. Boni and the Gould brothers won't agree. We both feel that George Gould will administer the trust with harsh parsimony. Boni with difficulty will bear this bondage."

The event has created a great stir in society and all Paris clubdom is speculating as to the outcome. Some of the Count's more hot-headed friends assert that he will not submit. Others laugh at this.

Further details regarding the appointment of George J. Gould as trustee for his sister show the indebtedness of Count Boni and his wife to be about 23,500,000 francs. Of this sum, there was expended on real estate in connection with the charity bazaar and their private home on the Avenue Malakoff 3,702 francs, mortgages 6,585,260 francs, loans, notes and tradesmen's bills 4,293,155 francs and on art bric-a-brac dealers 9,190,000 francs. M. Wertheimer, who is one of the art dealers interested claims goods were bought then taken back and then resold to the amount of 8,000,000 francs and that in these transactions there now remains due him the sum of 2,000,000 francs.

Canadians Return.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 1.—The overdue transport Idaho, with several hundred members of the Canadian contingent who participated in the war in South Africa has reached her dock. The delay in arriving was caused by an accident to the propeller, two blades of which had been broken. The Idaho was greeted with a thunderous roar of cannon from the citadel by hundreds of steam whistles and by the cheers of the sailors in the rigging of the British warships in port.

Boers Capture Britons.

Cape Town, Nov. 1.—A Boer commando captured a British outpost of 90 men in the vicinity of Geneva, Oct. 28, and afterwards held up a Cape Town mail train, looted the carriages and passengers, destroyed the mails, set fire to the train and decamped on the approach of an armored train. Not wishing to be hampered, the Boers released the prisoners they captured.

Smallpox in Klondike.

Washington, Nov. 1.—United States Consul McCook at Dawson, in a report just received, dated a month ago, reports several new cases of smallpox in the pest house below Dawson and says it looks as if there might be a serious outbreak of this disease at Dawson this winter. Navigation is now about closed there.

New Claims Indiana.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Harry S. New, national committeeman from Indiana, who accompanied Senator Hanna to Fort Wayne and other points in that state said at national headquarters: "Indiana is safely Republican this year beyond any doubt and McKinley's majority will be greater than in 1896. All claims to the contrary are misleading and false. Though a close state, it is as safely Republican as Michigan or Illinois."

THE deal for the Philippines was only a gigantic trust, the people's money being squandered therein to enrich contractors and others.

THE editor of the Bulletin knows of a number of Republicans of this county who openly announce their intention of voting for James N. Kehoe next Tuesday. They have known him from childhood up, and know he not only merits the honor he seeks, but that he is well qualified in every way to fill the position with credit to his State and district. In addition to this he has been a life-long friend to many, and they know he stands ready to aid them at any time and in every proper way.

THE Morning Democrat, of Lexington, remarks: "The time for talk is about over and action must take its place. The voters have heard the issues discussed and are thoroughly familiar with them. It is now up to business. The forces must be organized and compactly presented at the polls. No Democrat must be allowed to stay away. The issue is too momentous, the result is too far-reaching. Let every man do his duty, and Bryan and Beckham will receive fully 30,000 majority."

WHEN Finley Anderson, the confessed perjurer, testified at Georgetown against Caleb Powers, one of the assassination organs said:

"Falsehood and untruth, piled one on top of another as fast as they could be uttered, completely wiped out whatever value his previous statements might have in the eyes of the jury."

"They sing a different song now," remarks the Morning Democrat, of Lexington; "that Anderson has sworn he lied, and claims that his testimony having convicted Powers, his recantation is a vindication of the convict. There is apparently not even an attempt by the organs to be consistent."

CONTEST BOARDS UPHOLD.

Decision of Lower Court in the Cases of Minor State Officers Affirmed by Court of Appeals.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 31.—The Court of Appeals to-day overruled the motion of the Republican appellants to dismiss without prejudice the cases of the minor State officers, and affirmed the judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court, which held that the decision of the State Contesting Board declaring them to have been legally elected was final and could not be reviewed by the court. The whole court sat in the case, and Judges Burnam, Guffy and DuRelle dissented from the majority of the court.

The opinion, which is clear and concise, thoroughly reviewing all the points raised, was written by Judge Thomas H. Paynter. The Republican appellants have thirty days in which to file a petition for a rehearing of the case. This will likely be done, and if overruled an attempt will be made to carry the case to the United States Supreme Court, as the point was raised that the Republican contestants were not afforded due process of law.

THREE PROFESSORS

Who Bolted Bryan in 1896 Are For Him Now.

NEWARK, Ohio, October 31.—Prof. Charles B. White, teacher of Latin in Denison University at Granville, Ohio, announces his intention to vote next Tuesday for Bryan. Prof. White was one of the three Gold Democrats of Granville in the campaign of 1896, the other two being Prof. Wm. H. Johnson, teacher of American Politics in Denison University, and Prof. A. F. Hamilton, who some years ago was Superintendent of the public schools of St. Louis, Mo. Both Prof. Johnson and Prof. Hamilton some time ago declared their intention to support Mr. Bryan, and both of these men have through the local Democratic paper done some splendid work for the Democratic national ticket. While these men have not changed their views on the financial issue, they unhesitatingly recognize that the questions now before the American people for settlement are imperialism, militarism and the trusts.

Here's the Act of Congress Repealing All Such Statutes.

Here's the act of Congress repealing the laws relative to the appointment of Federal election supervisors and special Deputy Marshals at elections:

Chapter 25—An act to repeal all statutes relating to supervisors of elections and special Deputy Marshals, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sections and parts of sections of the Revised Statutes of the United States be and the same are hereby repealed; that is to say of title "Elective Franchise" sections 2002, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, relating to the appointment, qualification, power, duties and compensation of supervisors of election; and also Sections 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025, 2026, 2027, 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, of same title, relating to the appointment, qualification, power, duties and compensation of special deputies, and also of title "Crimes," Sections 5506, 5511, 5512, 5513, 5514, 5515, 5520, 5521, 5522, 5523, but the repeal of the sections hereinbefore mentioned shall not operate so as to affect any prosecutions now pending, if any, for a violation of any of the provisions of said sections; and also part of Section 643, as follows: "Or is commenced against any officer of the United States or other person on account of any act done under the provisions of title 26, the Elective Franchise, or on account of any right, title or authority claimed by any officer or other person under any of said provisions."

Sec. 2. That all other statutes and parts of statutes relating in any manner to supervisors of election and special Deputy Marshals be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved February 8, 1894. Statutes of United States of America, Second Session, Fifty-third Congress, page 36.

JOHN SHERMAN'S WARNING.

Delivered in the Vigor of Patriotic Statesmanship and With the Prophetic Wisdom of Experience.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 30.—The following are the concluding paragraphs of the autobiography of the late John Sherman, and seems particularly apt at this time, especially to old-time Republicans. They were written just six years ago, and are to be found in volume 2, page 1,216, of his memoirs. Mr. Sherman says:

"The events of the future are beyond the vision of mankind, but I hope that our people will be content with internal growth and avoid the complications of foreign acquisitions. Our family of States is already large enough to create embarrassments in the Senate, and a republic should not hold dependent provinces or possessions.

"Every new acquisition will create embarrassments. Canada and Mexico as independent republics will be more valuable to the United States than if carved into additional States.

"The Union already embraces discordant elements enough without adding others.

"If my life is prolonged I will do all I can to add to the prosperity and strength of the United States, but nothing to extend its limits or to add new dangers by the acquisition of foreign territory."

It will be remembered that two years after this was published Hon. John Sherman was made Secretary of State.

DRAMATIC

Incident Wound Up a Republican Meeting.
A Significant Demonstration.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., Oct. 31.—A dramatic incident occurred to-day at a meeting of the carworks employees, called to hear a speech of D. F. Kennedy, a Republican orator. The meeting was held just outside the gates of the works. A few years ago the plant employed between 800 and 1,000 men, but since the plant joined the carworks trust this number has dwindled until to-day only about 100 men were at work. The carworkers heard the speaker throughout quietly but sullenly, and when he finished the men broke into wild cheers for Bryan and kept them up until the carriage containing the speaker was out of sight. Not a cheer for McKinley was attempted. The incident caused a great stir and is looked upon as a significant straw.

FINLEY ANDERSON.

His Testimony Cut Very Little Figure in the Conviction of Caleb Powers.
Few Believed His Story.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 31.—The affidavit of Finley Anderson, "confessing" that he had lied in his testimony against Caleb Powers is being exploited for the purpose of making political capital instead of being used in the defense of a man convicted of a terrible crime and under a life sentence. The "confession" emanates from the Galt House, where the Republican State Campaign Committee has its headquarters, and where Mark Hanna's barrel for the corruption of the election in Kentucky has been opened up. It is the persistent report to-day that it was some of this boodle which induced Finley Anderson's "confession." The circumstances attending it and the use being made of it give color to these reports. How much Anderson received for his "confession" is not mentioned, but as the Republicans are paying liberally for campaign thunder, it must have been something big. Many inquiries are being made to-day and speculation indulged in as to the amount. It is also stated that Anderson has been promised immunity from prosecution for perjury in the event of Yerkes' election.

It is remarkable how suddenly Finley Anderson has been lifted into a position of importance as a witness for the Commonwealth by the Republican campaign managers. Since his "confession" he is held up as the principal witness for the prosecution, the witness whose testimony convicted Powers. Before the "confession" these same persons averred that Finley Anderson's statements fell flat before the jury; that on cross-examination he became so confused as to be wholly discredited, and that his testimony weakened instead of strengthened the prosecution.

As a matter of fact Finley Anderson as a witness proved an embarrassment to the prosecution. He was another witness like Weaver, the strolling barber, assuming to know a lot about the matter and by his pretensions thrust himself into the case as a witness. It is evident now that he was simply seeking notoriety.

In the exploitation of Finley Anderson's affidavit by the Republican State campaign managers, it is given out that the confession was "voluntarily made because he wished to clear his conscience." On top of this is the inconsistent statement that it took "four or five hours to wring the confession from him" and that "it was obtained only bit by bit." Now it is manifest that had Finley Anderson been moved by a purpose to clear his conscience it would not have taken his confessors from 7:30 o'clock till past midnight to squeeze out of him the pertinent parts of his story. Anderson was brought to Louisville from Covington by Robert Neagle, a strong Republican. He was taken direct to room 156, which is one of the row of rooms used by the Republican State Committee for private headquarters. There were present when Anderson arrived Leslie Combs, Chairman of the Republican State Campaign Committee; George W. Long, Secretary of the committee; Stanley Milward, Assistant Treasurer of the committee; R. C. Kinkead, one of Caleb Powers' attorneys, and representatives of a Republican newspaper. Anderson was driven to the headquarters in a carriage, spirited down through the basement, where the stairs leading to the private headquarters on the second floor were mounted. The party entered the headquarters without being observed. These were the circumstances under which the "confession" was made.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 31.—Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin was asked to-day about the Anderson affidavit and if the affiant told the truth at Louisville and lied at Georgetown. Mr. Franklin knows nothing of what Anderson alleged occurred at Cincinnati. He first heard of Anderson through reputable persons at Barbourville, to whom he had told his story several months before the trial of Powers was begun at Georgetown. These persons will be called on to tell of conversations with the self-confessed perjurer, in which he said he knew enough to convict Powers of the murder, and told them practically what he told while on the witness stand.

THE "ULTRA" SHOE

Is the No Plus Ultra of Shoe building. It is the result of the combination of the highest skill and the finest materials. It is made perfect to the finish. Some Shoes start fairly well, like a speech, and end indifferently, like some speeches. But the "ULTRA" Shoe is watched in every process of its building by experts who act under the strictest orders to secure perfection to the finish. Not a few of the lasts and materials of the "ULTRA":

Royal Opera last, Heyl's Patent Calf.
Fifth Avenue last, military heel of chrome kid.
French Model last, Paris shape, of glazed kid.
Model last, military heel, of chrome kid.
Derby last, of mat kid and ultra calf.

There are many others. These will serve to show some of the right styles and leathers. We are exhibiting the finest lines of LADIES' CORRECT DRESS FOOTWEAR ever seen in Maysville. Then why go to foreign markets for your Shoes, pay more for them and not get as good as we offer you AT HOME?

BARKLEY

The Bee Hive

Comforts and Blankets.

Prepare for cold weather. Jack Frost will be here before you know it. Don't be caught napping without a good Comfort or a warm Blanket. Come and see us now about 'em. You'll find an immense stock with splendid values, marked at very small prices. We have Comforts as low as 59c. and as high as $2.75. At 98c., $1.25 and $1.50 we have satine Comforts that are special bargains at the price. Some are knotted, and all are full size and come in choicest of designs. The Blanket stock is particularly strong this season. Full ten-quarter cotton Blankets, so soft that they feel like wool, at 69c. the pair. In the eleven-quarter size at 98c., $1.25 and $1.39. The all wool blankets range in price from $2.89 to $4.98. A special leader is an all wool plaid blanket worth at least $4.50, priced here at $3.49.

Some Cloak Items.

We have had so many customers "look all around" and then come to us and select one of our Cloaks that we feel sure of our position as leaders in Cloak selling. We invite the most critical comparison. Mark these few items and ask to see them. A Tan Kersey Jacket, full lined, worth fully $5, is marked here at $3.98. An all wool Black Kersey Jacket, lined throughout, not equalled elsewhere at $6.50, is lowly priced at $4.25. A superior Castor Kersey Jacket, with a guaranteed satin lining, we want you to compare with $12 garments sold elsewhere; our price $9.95. We guarantee a fit with every Jacket.

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear....

MILLINERY

We are having busy days in this department. On every hat purchased here there is a saving of thirty to forty per cent. as compared with prices of others. Give our hats a look and you'll be convinced of the truth of this assertion. Prices from $1.98 to $5.50.

THE MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Interesting Essays by Dr. A. G. Browning and Dr. A. N. Ellis—Action on the Death of Dr. Pangburn.

The Mason County Medical Society held its monthly meeting on Wednesday at office of Dr. Ellis. The meeting was well attended from city and county, including visiting laity and honorary members.

The society sustained its first loss in death of Dr. Pangburn, and a committee, to report at next meeting, was appointed to draft fitting resolutions of respect and sympathy.

The regular essay was by Dr. A. G. Browning, the subject being, "Certain Forms of Heart Disease, as Conducive to Fatal Toxemia, With a Case in Obstetrics." The essay was strictly upon professional lines and for professional consideration, and so indicated sources of valuable information to the obstetrician especially.

Dr. Browning's paper gave in a most interesting manner the results of a special line of research, and will notably extend his reputation as an observant and skillful accoucheur. The subject was developed with logical method and with characteristic ease and accuracy of style. Such a paper should not be permanently shelved in the transactions of the society. It is a valuable contribution to practical medicine and should be made readily accessible to the general profession.

Dr. Ellis also read a paper on "Color Blindness" and the necessity for expert examination of all officials in charge of railways, steamers &c. The suggestions were of wide application and pertinent.

The society gladly accepted the kind invitation of Dr. Davis to hold its next meeting at Mayslick Wednesday, Nov. 28th. There will be a morning and evening session, with opportunity for voluntary individual effort in the way of essays and papers. A full attendance is desired and confidently expected.

Death of Mrs. Charity White.

Mrs. Charity (Willoughby) White died last night at her home on Elizabeth street, Sixth ward, after a lingering illness. She was born March 1st, 1847, at Mayslick, and was married Oct. 8th, 1868, to Mr. John White, who survives her. They have been residents of Maysville for many years. Mrs. White united with the Christian Church at the age of sixteen years. The funeral will take Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, Howard T. Cree officiating.

A daughter of Mr. Fox Guilfoyle of Murphysville died Wednesday evening of diphtheria, aged about fifteen years. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon and the remains were buried at Washington. This is the second death from diphtheria in that neighborhood the past week, and there are five cases of the disease in Murphysville.

The hand-omest line of goods in the State suitable for bridal presents can be had at Murphy's, the jeweler. Call and see his new store and new stock. Nothing like it in Maysville.

W. H. Robb and others have sold the tollgate property at Helena to Mrs. Mary E. Du in for $450.

The Difference in Cost

Of thoroughly good fashionable and serviceable Clothes and Shoes as bear our label and inferior goods is not large enough to warrant you taking the risk attached to buying ordinary goods. The kind of clothes we sell are tailored by the same class of journeymen tailors as are employed by high-priced merchant tailors. Not a yard of fabric is used in these garments that has not been thoroughly tested for its textile strength and color fastness; therefore we thoroughly endorse and guarantee all goods we sell, and say, "money refunded" without argument if for any reason you are dissatisfied with your purchase.

Our experience as well as yours has proven that the kind of merchandise we sell is as near perfection as can be, and though they cost a little more than the other kinds they are really the cheapest kind in the end. Our leaders in clothes are Stein Bloch Co., Adler Bros. & Co., the best brands in the country.

In Shirts, the Manhattan; Hanan Shoes and Stetson Hats. All of these are the highest class of merchandise in their respective lines.

Hello!

Is this the Frank Owens Hardware Company?

Yes, sir!

Well, this is Helena!

And what can we do for her?

Why, some of my neighbors are thinking of building some new fence shortly and want to know if you still handle the American Woven Wire goods?

Indeed we do, and would be happy to book their orders!

We have heard this fence spoken of very highly and suppose it is all that it is represented to be?

Every rod is fully guaranteed by the manufacturers, and we think you will find it the fence you have been looking for.

Good bye!

NOTE----Another large shipment of this fencing is on the way and is expected to arrive in a day or two. Prospective purchasers should order now, so that their wants may be promptly supplied.

Willie O'Rourke and sister Maggie, accompanied by their friends, Mr. Almer and Mr. Fitzgibbons, spent the day with Mrs. Thomas Byron, of Fleming, Tuesday.

Miss Annie Byron has returned home after a pleasant visit at Maysville.

The funeral of Mrs. Hattie Hord took place Friday at 1 o'clock at the family home, conducted by the Rev. J. B. Jones.

Another life has gone. Ah, yes, There's another vacant chair;

Another form missed from our side,

Another—crows to wear.

Another voice is hushed and still,

An angel vigil keeps.

While brushing 'way the fallen tear

We whisper low: "She sleeps."

Amid life's duty she was called,

And she obeyed His voice;

Tho' aching hearts are left behind,

May we not now rejoice

That never more will trouble, pain

Assail her? Hope now peeps

Behind the darkest cloud and says,

She is not dead, she only sleeps.

May God, in pity infinite,

Now comfort those behind;

Those whose hearts are bleeding sore

May he be more than kind,

And teach them patience, faith and trust,

Tho' the shadow nearer creeps.

When the awakening comes

They'll find some day

She is not dead. No, only sleeps.

THE SLACK-BRYAN NUPTIALS.

Former Maysville Gentleman Weds Miss Mary Bryan, of Georgetown, Wednesday Evening.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Oct. 31.—Alfred M. Slack, of Cincinnati, recently of Maysville, and Miss Mary Bryan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Bryan, of this city, were married at the Christian Church here to-night in the presence of a large and fashionable congregation. The ceremony was performed by Elder V. W. ris, and Albert Sleet, of Midway, presided at the organ.

Miss Fannie Rogers, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Alfred Marshall Peed, of Mayslick, best man.

The bridal party was preceded by Spence Summer Carrick and Robert Bryan as pages in white satin suits, followed by the flower girls, Willie Rogers and Cornelia Blackburn, in Colonial costumes. The bridesmaids were Misses Daisy Bell, of Chicago; Hattie Scott, of Frankfort; May Wells, Mamie Stone and Beatrice Bristow, of this city. James Gravely, of Danville, Va., T. T. Walker, of Covington; Frank Bryan, Jr., James Kelly, Jr., and John W. McMeekin, Jr., of Georgetown, were ushers.

The bride's gown was white mousseline de soie, the gown of the maid of honor was green over green silk, and the gowns of the bridesmaids white Paris muslin over green silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Slack left for a short trip East. On their return next week they will be tendered a reception by the groom's sister, Mrs. Oscar Barrett, of Newport.

Observations Made at Kackley's Newly-Furnished Photograph Gallery.

A visitor to Kackley's photograph gallery notes at once that he has a direct north light, so necessary to give a well-lighted picture. The number of instruments also attract attention. There are all sizes of cameras, and a very unusual sight is to see his mammoth camera for life-size portraits. This is a camera of rare quality, secured at a great cost. Then there are new backgrounds, with floor extension, for the platinum portraits made at considerable less price than large city galleries get for the same work. We noticed all shapes of card mounts, shaded Rembrandt effects and sunken centers, with the latest ideas of mounting them. The eye rest is good. So often we could change our expression if we were conscious of how we look.

Speaking tubes and electric bells have been put in to connect with the book store below. The gallery is heated by steam, is well lighted and handsomely decorated with palms and curtains that all show good taste. The dark room and printing room show in every detail a thorough equipment.

Mrs. Kackley lends her womanly touches in all the various departments.

The scribe was shown the art of retouching the negatives and removing the wrinkles from the human face and was surprised to see the change made.

We notice water colors, colored photographs, Sepias and all styles of portraits made at the Kackley's gallery. For Christmas presents the time is now at hand to give your order.

CURE

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treacherous diseases. At the first symptom take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good results.
